

Southland Employer Council Elects Torrance Businessmen to Offices

The Southern California Employers Council, with headquarters in Torrance, has elected officers and directors for the coming year.

A. J. Moe of the San Pedro pharmacy bearing his name, is president. Paul Diamond of the Gay Shop, Torrance, E. W. Spear of Spear's Store for Men, Wilmington, H. P. Osborne Jr. of Shanks Economy Store, Lomita, and Louis Arbetter of Allen Jewelers, Torrance, are vice presidents.

W. O. Clauson of Clauson Bros., Wilmington, is secretary-treasurer, and Frank S. Selover is executive secretary. Among new board members are George M. Naylor of Torrance Hardware, Sam Levy of Levy's Department Store, and James Squire of Squire's Style Shop.

ELIMINATE TRAFFIC JAMS

Drivers can help eliminate jams by not blocking busy intersections in attempts to "make the light." The Allstate Safety Crusade advises don't enter an intersection unless you're sure there's enough room to clear both the intersection and crosswalk.

Leo R. Crocker, First Cook, in Winter Games

Army Specialist Five Leo R. Crocker will participate with the 35th Transportation Company in Exercise Winter Shield in southern Germany Feb. 1-7.

Crocker, first cook in the company, entered the army in 1954 and arrived overseas last December.

He is a 1950 graduate of Narbonne High School and attended Harbor College.

His mother, Lois T. Crocker, lives at 22700 Orchard St., Torrance.

Red Cross Issues Call for Helpers

Volunteer help is needed by the Torrance-Lomita Chapter of the American Red Cross, according to Pat Orsini, blood bank chairman. Without the work and assistance of such volunteers, the Los Angeles Chapter of Red Cross would be unable to function, since they provide only the technical and medical staff required to run a blood bank.

Desperately needed now are women who would be able to volunteer their time and abilities for an afternoon, for a length of time not more than five hours. Such jobs as typists remain unfilled. Anyone who can type even slightly is asked to call Mrs. Orsini at FA 8-0647.

Also needed are women to be assistants in the donor room. This would require only that the volunteer assist donors from cots to the canteen, and to usher donors into the donor area. Mrs. Orsini will supply complete information to those who will call her.

Regular workers also are needed. Women are needed to be "Staff Aides" to perform such duties as to answer the phones and to assist persons making inquiries about the services of Red Cross. Hours to suit one's own schedule can be arranged by calling Mrs. Orsini.
